

Dear Clients,

New updates regarding the export restrictions on livestock products to the Russian Federation: we inform you that postal shipments containing livestock products addressed to individuals are not permitted.

- meat products
- processed meat products
- dairy products
- animal feed and feed additives, etc.

Animal feed containing meat is prohibited for import.

Animal feeds containing fish or poultry are allowed to be imported.